

6516209366.txt

It makes no sense to limit satellite radio from broadcasting local oriented content. We pay for this and expect to receive service unrestricted by purely financial pressures with no regard for technological advances. XM provides this capability while traveling that is not available to me otherwise.